"Mechanism of the Homeostatic Action of Nettle," I. Ya. Shafersteyn, T. K. Pavlenko, Stalinsk Med Inst

"Farmakol i Toksikol" Vol 8, No 6, 1945, pp 29-31

Unlike Daboia venum, nettle infusior does not of itself accelerate coagulation of recalcified plasma, but it does activate cerebral extract (I) prepared by extracting human brain with physiological salt solution saturated with toluene. This activation occurs in spite of lowered thrombokinas content in I. Technique of Kisall et al. recommended.
